TRIMS SIR VOORHIES IN STAKE RACE AT BRIGHTON.

W. R. Condon Beats Hunter Raine in a Rattling Finish-Burns Rides Rowena and Dark Planet to Victory-Lux Casta in Front-Three Favorites Win.

Racing of a higher quality than usual delighted 10,000 people at Brighton Beach yes-terday afternoon. The clear weather and the cool ocean breezes made the track a place of supreme comfort. The track had ried ove considerably and the mud larks were forced to take a back seat. Three favorites, all heavily supported, enabled the talent to make their usual struggle with the layers a draw.

The Glen Cove Handicap for three-yearolds at six furlongs was the only stake feature on the card, but it proved to be a problem that puzzled the crowd who made Eugenia Burch the choice at 2 to 1, with St. Daniel at 9 to 2, Astarita at 5 to 1 and Invincible backed down to sevens. The start was good, but Eugenia Burch got away slowly and was quickly shut in. Minotaur sailed out in front, but Astarita ran him to earth at the turn, taking the lead, which Hicks never relinquished. As a result Astarita was returned a comparatively easy winner by two lengths in the good time of 1:13 3-5. Redfern put up a strong finish on Sir Voorhies, 15 to 1, who took the place from Gravina, 30 to 1, by three parts of a length. Odom had to take the favorite by the overland, and she was coming gamely under the whip in the stretch when it was too late to be better than fourth. half a length back.

Redfern put up a beautiful ride on W. R. Condon, the favorite in the handicap, at a mile and a furlong It was the prettiest race of the day. Cardinal Wolsey made the running with a length to spare to the middle of the ar turn. The others ran in such close order meanwhile that the jockeys were within arm's length of one another. The winner was in doubt when they straightened out, but Redfern soon found an opening and came through with W. R. Condon in such a brilliant manner that the crowd was up in arms. Odom was after him with Hunter Raine, 4 to 1, under a powerful finish, but Redfern's whip was at work right up to the wire, where W. R. Condon got the verdict by a head in 1:55. Thorneycroft, lowered to 8 to 2 and ridden by an apprentice, was third,

a length and a half away.
Counterpoise, the three-year-old who beat Shot Gin the other day, was backed down to a to to favorite in the sixth race, at six furlongs, but there was a strong following for Lux Castarat 7 to 5. King Pepper got away this time with race speed and cut out a fast is time with rare speed and cut out a fast ce for half a mile. Then Redfern passed m with the favorite and looked formidable him with the favorite and looked formidable until Gannon rushed up on the outside with Lax Casta, who won cleverly by a length and a het in 1:13 2-5. Counterpoise finished two lengths before King Pepper.

Burns rode the winners of the first two races in splendid fashion. In the first race, for two-year-old fillies and geldings at five and a half furlongs. Burns had the mount on C. P. Waterhouse's Rowena, by Altamax, who was played down from 5 to 1 to 14 to 5. There was a short, decisive struckle in the stretch, Burns bringing Rowena home a length and a half before Sweet Gretchen, who was three lengths in front of White Plume. The time was 1:00.

and a half before sweet of retrain, who was three lengths in front of White Plume. The time was 1:09.

Burns's ride on Dark Planet, 12 to 1, in the second race, at a mile and a sixteenth, was his best effort. Terry McGovern's Cincinnatus, 20 to 1, made the pace until well into the stretch. Nevermore, the favorite, clinging to him all the way. Burns was away poorly with Dark Planet, but made up the ground gradually. When it came down to a driving finish he landed Dark Planet winner by a head, with Cincinnatus under a poor ride beating Nevermore by three parts of a length. The time was 1:49. Knight of the Garter was left at the post.

"Father Bill" Daly's colors were in front at the conclusion of the fifth race, for two-year-olds at six furlongs, when O'Neil handled Luminosity, the favorite, with extreme cleverness, the Albert filly winning in a drive from Thistle Heather, second choice. Short Cake, backed down to 17 to 5, was indifferently ridden by Minder and finished third. The time was 1:15 2-5.

BRIGHTON TURF GOSSIP. 'Whitey" Langdon Wins a Bet From Sol Lichtenstein.

On the shuttle train which runs between Manhattan Beach and Brighton yesterday Sol Lichtenstein, the well-known bookmaker, and "Whitey" Langdon, the former grand stand betting commissioner, now a plunger, got into an argument as to Luminosity's chances for winning the fifth race. "What will you lay me on the Daly filly, providing Thistle Heather and Charlie Fisher

both start?" asked Langdon
"Two and a half to one," retorted Lichtenstein.
"I'll bet you $1,500 at those odds!" Langdon exclaimed, eagerly. Whereupon the book-maker said:

As Luminosity won, Langdon was richer by $3,750, with the laugh on Lichtenstein. David Gideon was also a big winner on the by $3,750, with the laugh on Lichtenstein. David Gideon was also a big winner on the Daly filly. It is said that he offered to bet $500 for "Father Bill" if the latter would allow O'Neil to have the mount, and the Sage of Hartford readily assented.

T. Hitchcock, Jr 's, good jumper, Tchula, a daughter of the famous Longstreet, broke her neck while being schooled over the jumps by G. Green yesterday morning. Green was thrown over her head, but escaped serious injury.

Redfern was much in evidence yesterday. He had five mounts, riding a winner, three seconds and a third.

Terry McGovern and the Bowery sports came near pulling off a killing with Cincinnatus in the second race. They backed him quietly all over the ring at 20 to 1 and roared with delight when they saw the Ornament coit lead all the way to the stretch. But when little Desouza was unable to stall off Burns's rush on Dark Planet, Terry and his friends groaned aloud. Cincinnatus was seratched the other day after he had been backed because of his late arrival in the paddock. Contrary to the general belief, many layers still refuse to pay these wagers back, as there is a difference of opinion among the members of the Mets' board of arbitration.

Jockey Fuller was not at the track yesterday. He had been engaged to ride Frank Farrell's horses, Col. Padden, Minotaur and King Pepper, so that there was considerable ill-feeling over his absence. It was said that the boy was enjoying himself at a neighboring hotel, and Mr. Farrell was outspoken in censuring him.

E. L. Graves and his associates arranged.

E. L. Graves and his associates arranged an old-time killing with Dinah Shad in the fifth race. The filly was played from 200 to 1 down to 60 to 1, and, with a stable boy up, she tried to make a runaway of it. But when she stopped in the stretch Graves & Co. concluded that they would not have a "Shad Dinah" until later on.

QUAKERS MAKE UPHILL FIGHT.

SCORE WELL ON SECOND DAY AGAINST WORCESTERSHIRE.

The Last Four Wickets to Fall Increase Overnight Total of Americans From 71 to 233-Rain Stops Play When Britishers Lose Six Wickets for 158.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. WORCESTER, July 14 .- The Philadelphian cricketers played a fine uphill game here today when play in their match with Worcester-shire was resumed, and the team gave an exhibition of batting altogether unexpected. When play ceased last evening the visitors had lost 6 wickets for 71 runs, against Worces-tershire's total of 388. It was fully expected this morning that the remaining four men would yield easily, and, calculating on a follow-on, it was figured that the game would be over this evening in a single innings victory for the home team.

P. H. Clark and T. C. Jordan, the overnight not-outs, soon set these calculations awry. The pair played with determination, and the runs came slowly, but surely, until with the total at 138 Jordan was bowled by Hayward for an invaluable innings of 22. P. H. Clark kept on, however, in splendid style, and he had scored 67 when, in playing back to a ball from Hayward, he broke his

C. Morris then did his share in the run-

C. C. Morris then did his share in the rungetting with a capital innings of 47, which at last broke the long spell of ill luck that has followed him since his innings of 164 against Notts. E. M. Cregar and P. N. Le Roy also helped in the general result, and the innings was over for 233.

Although Worcestershire had a lead of 155 runs, it was decided not to run the risk of a long outing by sending the Philadelphlans to the bat to follow their innings, and Arnold and Bowley again began the run-getting. This pair made a good opening, and the latter put on an even half-century before he was howled by Clark. With 6 wickets down for 158, play was interrupted by rain, and as this continued it was decided to postpone further play until to-morrow, when the match will be concluded.

SPIKE SULLIVAN MATCHED. To Meet Bobby Dobbs at Newcastle, Eng-

"Spike" Sullivan is to figure in another fight before he returns home. According to the London Sportsman Sullivan has signed articles of agreement to meet Bobby Dobbs. the negro lightweight, at Newcastle, Engthe negro lightweight, at Newcastle, England, on July 18. They are to come together for twenty rounds at 144 pounds. The purse is $500. This will be Dobbs's first appearance at Newcastle since he met Dick Burge. Much interest is centred on the outcome because of the recognized Mitting powers of both men. The weight somewhat favors Dobbs, because Sullivan can reduce to 138 pounds, if necessary. Dobbs is very confident of success and has wagered $500 on his chances.

While criticising Marshall's action in recently challenging Dr. Lasker to a match for the world's chess championship, Leopold Hoffer, the noted London analyst and authority on chess, advances three reasons for his belief that the present champion is not likely to accept. First of all, he says, the stakes to accept. First of all, he says, the stakes proposed, £100, are not large enough for a championship match; secondly, Marshall's recent success in the Venna Gambit townsment does not entitle him to challenge the champion; and, thirdly, because Dr. Tarrasch declined a match with Dr. Lasker, when the latter was in a similar position to that of Marshall. Is is true, adds Hoffer, that Steinitz did subsequently accept Lasker; challenge, but only because private considerations compelled him to play the match, which he otherwise would not have done. Still another reason, according to Hoffer, is that Pillsbury, who is expected to leave for home any time, has a prior right to a match with Lasker.

News of the Wheelmen.

Sunday eyele racing has proved so cessful on the three-lap dirt track at Belleille, N. J., that the managers are now planning the construction of an up-to-date board course, six laps to the mile. This is expected course, six laps to the mile. This is expected to be completed in time for some racing on it this summer.

Somehow the New Jersey promoters have a knack of running off exciting events, as was demonstrated last Sunday, when a crowd of 3,000 spectators sat out the programme in the rain. Two cash prize events and three amateur races are on the card for next Sunday, and the idea of running professional events on the heat plan used for the circuit championships, which was introduced at Vailsburg last year, will be adopted.

WITH THE HARNESS HORSES. IN THE BASEBALL WORLD. Favorites Win at the Columbus Meet-

COLUMBUS, July 14.-The favored ones had a better day of it on the second day's racing here, and three out of the four won. Dr. Madara, in the 2:24 class pacing and Guy Fortune in the 2:23 class trotting, both Hudson horses, won easily, and Robizola, the Sanders entry, who won the 2:30 class trot yesterday, again got away with the 2:17 purse to-day. Gates Ajar was played heavily to win the 2:10 class pace, but she broke badly at the first turn and could finish no better than fourth. The mare did the same thing in the second heat, and was out of it again. Baron Rodgers, who won the first heat, was the favorite in the second heat at 25 against 16 for the field. He won the last heat also and the race, making the best time of the day and the meeting so far, being orced to come home in 2:08%. There were but three starters in the 2:24 class pacing, and McCarthy, who had driven Tom Keene the first heat, was replaced by McHenry. He drove him a good race, but Dr. Madara had the speed and took the money in straight heats.

In was an easy victory for at Grosse Point. In was an easy victory for Wainscott. After the second heat, the rivers of Hie Boy and Bonnie Russell were fixed $25 each for holding back. No Exhibitions for Lou Dillon.

longed to a poor man or to one who followed the Grand Circuit for a living, she would be the means of making a fortune this summer in exhibitions alone. Already the Billings stable at Genville has been the receiving station for numberless telegrams from track managers in all sections of the country, offering inducements to Mr. Billings to let the mare trot over their tracks. Columbus wired an offer of $2,500 for an exhibition. Not one of the offers will be accepted. Speaking 5, the mare's sudden popularity, Doc. Fanner said. "Mr. Billings is a great believer in home institutions and Lou Dillon will trot nowhere else until after she has been thoroughly tried here. Bad flelding helped the Gothamites to another run in the fifth. Browne bunted with two out, and would have been an easy out had Phillips not interfered with Steinfeldt's throw. Van Haltren singled and again was caught off first by Phillips, but this time Beckley made a muff, allowing Browne to score.
